The Ohio Department of Development is pleased to present the 1990 OHIO COUNTY PROFILES, a statistical compendium of selected demographic and economic characteristics of Ohio and each of its 88 counties. In the past, this resource has been a valuable reference and guide for persons who make business and policy decisions. We believe this new edition is of equal value.

I am pleased to offer this report which was prepared by the Ohio Data Users Center (ODUC). It contains the most recent information available which may be used by a wide variety of constituents, including governmental agencies, communities and public service organizations, business and industry minded consumers and the general public. The Department strives to develop materials which offer the largest amount of information to the widest possible audience. We are proud of the diversity and growth in Ohio, in its varied population and its growing economic and business interests.

Ohio has a terrific story to tell. More than five million Ohioans have jobs, more than at any time in our history. We look forward to continued employment and economic development in the future. The 1990 OHIO COUNTY PROFILES should help those of you who are part of this employment and economic growth, or who wish to become part of it.

LaSalle visited the Ohio area in 1669. British fur-traders arrived, beginning 1685; the French and Indians sought to drive them out. During the Revolution, Virginians defeated the Indians, 1774, but hostilities were renewed 1777. The region became U.S. territory after the Revolution. First organized settlement was at Marietta, 1788. Indian warfare ended with Anthony Wayne's victory at Fallen Timbers, 1794. In the War of 1812, Oliver H. Perry's victory on Lake Erie and William H. Harrison's invasion of Canada, 1813, ended British incursions.

COUNTY PROFILE: BELMONT COUNTY

NAMED FOR: HILLS OF THE COUNTY, FROM FRENCH "BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN"

ESTABLISHED: PROCLAMATION - SEPTEMBER 7, 1801

SIZE: 537 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: ST. CLAIRSVILLE

Belmont County, located on the Ohio River, east of Columbus, was the ninth county formed in the Northwest Territory and the scene of many Indian battles. First populated largely by the Quakers, the county still is home for many of their descendants, familiar for the "plain" dress. Martins Ferry, the largest city, was the birthplace of novelist William Dean Howells and was the setting for several Zane Gray stories. Bellaire is important as a glass manufacturing area and is the site of the Friends Meetinghouse.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL JACOB BROWN, WAR OF 1812
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1819
SIZE:	493 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	GEORGETOWN

Brown County is on the Ohio River, east of Cincinnati, and because of its location experiences four distinct seasonal changes in climate. Clermont County, east of Cincinnati, is the home of Ulysses S. Grant, the first Ohio-born President. The county has a terrain of steep slopes, well-watered by the Ohio River, and used mostly for pasture and woodland. Among the attractions in the county are the Point Pleasant-Grant State Memorial, and Utopia, established in 1884 as a communistic society, soon taken over by Spiritualists who believed in an economic system based on principles of business and religion. East Fork Lake State Park is in Clermont County.

NAMED FOR:	GEORGE CLINTON, VICE PRESIDENT UNDER JAMES MADISON
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1810
SIZE:	410 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	WILMINGTON

Clinton County is northeast of Cincinnati and because of its fertile soil has been called the "Garden Spot" of the United States. It was settled originally by Quakers, who established Wilmington College in 1870. It is located in Wilmington. In 1895, the village of Blanchester was the scene of a devastating fire which destroyed 72 buildings and caused $125,000 in property damage. The next month, November 1895, the village was struck by a wind storm which damaged all new construction as well as some of the few buildings left after the fire. There are two state parks, Cowan Lake and Caesar Creek, which have excellent camping areas.

COUNTY PROFILE: CRAWFORD COUNTY

NAMED FOR: COLONEL WILLIAM CRAWFORD, REVOLUTIONARY WAR

ESTABLISHED: ACT - APRIL 1, 1820

SIZE: 403 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: BUCYRUS

Crawford County, north of Columbus, is situated on the highest ridge in the state. The city of Bucyrus was named by early settlers from New England and Germany. "Bu" stands for beautiful, attached to Cyrus, the name of the Persian general Cyrus. Bucyrus is the commercial center of the county. Tourist attractions include the Wagon Wheel Bratwurst Festival in August. Midway between Bucyrus and Galion is a monument to Colonel William Crawford who was captured near Broken Sword Creek, named because he broke his sword and dropped it into this creek to prevent the Indians from using it against him. The sword was unearthed in 1889 and now is displayed in an Upper Sandusky museum.

COUNTY PROFILE: DEFIANCE COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	FORT DEFIANCE
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 7, 1845
SIZE:	414 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	DEFIANCE

Defiance County borders Indiana, southwest of Toledo. It was the home of Pontiac, the greatest of the Ohio Indians. Defiance City was at one time Fort Defiance, a stockade at the confluence of the Maumee and Auglaize rivers. Later the area became a busy trading center and even later a canal established it as a major growth center. Tourist attractions include Defiance Auglaize Village, Defiance College and the annual Johnny Appleseed Festival. Harley Davidson Inc., motorcycle manufacturer, has named the 18-mile stretch of State Route 424 between Napoleon and Defiance as one of the ten best touring roads in the nation.

COUNTY PROFILE: DELAWARE COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	INDIAN TRIBE
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1807
SIZE:	443 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	DELAWARE

Delaware County in central Ohio, just north of Columbus, is home of the Columbus Zoo, a rapidly growing zoo with two of the nation's largest breeding programs, for gorillas and cheetahs. The area was home to the Delaware and Wyandotte Indians who later remained after the town of Delaware was occupied by white settlers. Delaware was the birthplace of President Rutherford B. Hayes, and the site of Ohio Wesleyan University, founded by the Methodists, who later established Methodist Theological Seminary in the county. Major tourist attractions, in addition to the zoo, include the annual Memorial Golf Tournament, the annual Little Brown Jug races, Olentangy Caverns and Perkins Observatory.

COUNTY PROFILE: FAIRFIELD COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	THE FAIR FIELDS OF THE COUNTY
ESTABLISHED:	PROCLAMATION - DECEMBER 9, 1800
SIZE:	506 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	LANCASTER

Fairfield County, southeast of Columbus, is known for its covered bridges and its glass making industry. Lancaster provided a canal link with the Ohio-Erie canal and accounted for the rapid growth of prosperity in the county. Mabel Wagnalls Jones, daughter of the Wagnalls of Funk and Wagnalls publishing firm, built a half-million dollar library in the village of Lithopolis; on her death the library was endowed and her estate also provided scholarships to young people in Bloom Township. Lithopolis is the only village of its size in the world to administer so much money for education and books. Tourist attractions include the Sherman House State Memorial, Georgian House, Wagnalls Memorial and the annual summer cultural music festival in Lancaster.

ESTABLISHED: ACT - MARCH 1, 1810

SIZE: 405 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: WASHINGTON C.H.

Fayette County, southwest of Columbus, always has been a livestock center for cattle, sheep, hogs, and horses. There probably is more horse breeding in Fayette than in any other Ohio county. Tourist attractions include Court House Murals, Deer Creek State Park and its Wildlife Reserve and an antique auto racing exhibition and car show, a monthly flea market, and gun and antique display held at the Fayette Fairgrounds. The county courthouse contains murals by Archibald M. Willard, including the Spirit of '76.

COUNTY PROFILE: GALLIA COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	GAUL, LATIN FOR FRANCE
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 30, 1803
SIZE:	471 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	GALLIPOLIS

Gallia County, located on the Ohio River, southeast of Columbus, was named for Gaul (Latin for France) by its early French settlers. Gallipolis, established by the French, is the site of Rio Grande College, founded in 1875 specifically to educate the poor of the area. Its water front area once was a popular port for trade boats and for both showboats and passenger boats. During the Civil War, the city was a major Union Army supply station. Waterborne commerce is still important in the county and seven Ohio River freight terminals are located there. Rio Grande College is in Gallia County as is the Bob Evans Homestead Farm.

NAMED FOR: INDIAN WORD MEANING "RACOON"

ESTABLISHED: ACT - MARCH 1, 1806

SIZE: 408 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: CHARDON

Geauga County is in the northeastern part of the state and was the second formed on the Western Reserve. In the early days, hills and heavy forests hindered the development of large cities and industry, so the county remained agricultural for a considerable time. The county is called the "sweetest county" because it leads the state in maple products and holds an annual Maple Festival in April in Chardon. In recent times industries including electrical machinery, and rubber production, and printing and publishing have developed. At one time the county housed about sixty creameries which produced handmade cheeses, and the dairy industry still is one of the primary agricultural ventures. Attractions include the Geauga County Historical Museum and Village, Geauga Lake Park, Sea World of Ohio and the Swiss Cheese Festival in June. Punderson Lake and Lodge, the oldest state park lodge, done in English Tudor style, is in Geauga County.

COUNTY PROFILE: GUERNSEY COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	ENGLISH CHANNEL ISLAND
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1810
SIZE:	522 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	CAMBRIDGE

Guernsey County is in the southeastern part of the state, east of Columbus. Cambridge was first known for its glass industry and it still is an important dairy and livestock and shopping center in the heart of the Muskingum Conservancy Lake District watershed. The Ohio Arts and Crafts Guild is headquartered in Cambridge. Tourist attractions and special events include S Bridge National Road (so named because of several interesting S-shaped bridges for which no satisfactory engineering or architectural explanation has been found), Cambridge Concert Association and an annual Ohio Wines weekend in January. Site of Salt Fork State Park, the largest in Ohio in land space, with four large golf courses. Famous for its July Arts and Crafts Festival in Cambridge.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL HENRY KNOX, REVOLUTIONARY WAR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1808
SIZE:	529 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	MT. VERNON

Knox County is located southwest of Cleveland. Many of the buildings in Mount Vernon were designed in classic Greek style and the U.S. State Department once chose Mount Vernon to represent a model American city for an article in a Russian magazine distributed briefly after World War II. Mary Ann Bell Bickerdyke, known to Union soldiers as "Mother Bickerdyke", America's first war nurse, was born in Knox County. The Village of Gambier was developed around Kenyon College. Tourist attractions include Old Tool Crib Museum, Kenyon College, and Mohican Wilderness Farm and Campground.

COUNTY PROFILE: LAKE COUNTY

NAMED FOR: LAKE ERIE

ESTABLISHED: ACT - MARCH 6, 1840

SIZE: 231 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: PAINESVILLE

Lake County borders Lake Erie and is the smallest in area in Ohio. Painesville was first settled by New Englanders who early on constructed roads to other settlements. In 1847 graduates of Mount Holyoke College began a Female Seminary at Willoughby which later moved to Painesville and became Lake Erie College. The Mormon Church, built in 1833 at Kirtland was the first church for the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints. Opposition to this group, especially after the failure of a bank managed by the Mormons, eventually caused most practitioners of the faith to move West. James A. Garfield's farm estate, Lawnfield, is located in Mentor. Tourist attractions include Fairport Harbor Marine Museum, Kirtland Mormon Temple, and Lawnfield Headlands State Park.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL BENJAMIN LOGAN
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1818
SIZE:	458 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	BELLEFONTAINE

Logan County, northwest of Columbus, includes the Mad River area which once belonged to the Shawnee Indians. Bellefontaine is French for "beautiful fountain", and was used to describe the springs in the area around which the settlers located. The area once was a Shawnee village. The first development in the county was Zanesfield which grew from a Wyandotte Indian Village. Zanesfield was the home of Earl Sloan who made a fortune from a liniment originally meant for horses, but later sold for human use. The liniment is still available. Part of Sloan's fortune was used to establish the Sloan Industrial School, a vocational training component of Bellefontaine High School. Tourist attractions include Mad River ski area, Piatt Castles, and farm-vacation areas and Ohio Caverns, West Liberty, which have both stalagmites and stalactites.

NAMED FOR: FRENCH PROVINCE, LORRAINE

ESTABLISHED: ACT - DECEMBER 26, 1822

SIZE: 495 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: ELYRIA

Lorain County borders Lake Erie west of Cleveland. The city of Lorain, once known as Mouth of Black River and as Charleston, was one of the state's first large shipbuilding cities. It was almost completely destroyed by a tornado in 1924 and later rebuilt. Oberlin developed around Oberlin College, the first coeducational college in the United States and one of the first to admit Afro-Americans. Oberlin was the first town in the nation to enact a Fair Housing Ordinance. In 1858 the rescue of a fugitive slave in the Oberlin-Wellington Rescue attracted international attention. Attractions include Indian Ridge Museum, Lorain County Historical Society, and Oberlin College.

NAMED FOR:	ROBERT LUCAS, GOVERNOR OF OHIO, 1832-1836
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - JUNE 20, 1835
SIZE:	341 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	TOLEDO

Lucas County, at the Western tip of Lake Erie and bordering Michigan, is in the Black Swamp district. The area originally was moastly French occupied, but later became primarily British after General Anthony Wayne defeated the Indians in the battle of Fallen Timbers. Toledo always was a valuable shipping port, and the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway made it even more important. The discovery of natural gas in the 1880's initiated the development of glass factories in Toledo. Tourist attractions include Toledo Museum of Art, Toledo Zoo, University of Toledo, Toledo Medical College of Ohio, and Fallen Timbers State Monument. The Annual "ToledoFest: A Celebration of the Arts", which runs from the end of August to early September, is one of the two Ohio attractions which has been included in the American Bus Association's top 10 events in North America.

Mahoning County, borders Pennsylvania southeast of Cleveland. Its importance developed because of its iron ore deposits and the growth of the city of Youngstown as a world center for steel manufacturing. During the Civil War, much of the necessary munitions was supplied from the Youngstown mills. The first mill, Ohio Steel, later became part of United States Steel. Youngstown State University is located in the city. Other tourist attractions include Pioneer Village in Canfield, Mill Creek Park, and the Arms Museum.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL FRANCIS MARION, THE "SWAMP FOX", REVOLUTIONARY WAR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1820
SIZE:	403 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	MARION

Marion County, north of Columbus, originally was called Jacob's Well for Jacob Foos, a member of a surveying party for a proposed road; in his surveying he discovered a spring which became a stopping place for travelers. Later the spot was named Marion. Warren G. Harding moved to Marion when he was about 19-years old to work on a newspaper, which he later bought and built into an important publication. Marion also is home of the Power Shovel which was important in building the Panama Canal. Tourist attractions include the Harding Home, Claridon Prairie Preserve and Delaware State Park.

ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1819
SIZE:	432 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	POMEROY

Meigs County, southeast of Columbus, was settled by former New Englanders. Its history includes a raid by Confederate leader John Morgan, which was stopped in the Meigs County area. COUNTY PROFILE: MERCER COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL HUGH MERCER, REVOLUTIONARY WAR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1812
SIZE:	457 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	CELINA

Mercer County borders Indiana, southwest of Toledo. The earliest settlers located at Shanes Crossing, now Rockford, on the Saint Marys River, along a trail used by Indians and white traders for centuries. Fort Recovery is a famous early settlement and a monument there commemorates those who died in the Indian-settler battles in the area. The Miami-Erie canal was a large influence on the county and brought a large population increase, which was stimulated even further by the development of the railroads. Tourist attractions include Mercer County Historical Museum, Fort Recovery Museum, and Grand Lake Saint Marys State Park.

NAMED FOR: JAMES MONROE

ESTABLISHED: ACT - JANUARY 29, 1813

SIZE: 458 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: WOODSFIELD

Monroe County is on the Ohio River, east of Columbus in a hilly area with abundant coal deposits. Earlier settlers were from Pennsylvania, Virginia and New England, including a number of Swiss families who located in the area because the hills reminded them of their homeland. Monroe County is one of the most scenic in the state and is sparsely populated; it is the site of a number of riding clubs and horse stables. Tourist areas include Knowlton Covered Bridge Park, Foraker Covered Bridge, Stone House and Barn, and the Dairy Museum and a marker where George Washington once camped on the Ohio River Bank.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL RICHARD MONTGOMERY, REVOLUTIONARY WAR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MAY 1, 1803
SIZE:	458 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	DAYTON

Montgomery County, north of Cincinnati, developed at the confluence of the Miami, Mad, and Stillwater Rivers and Wolf Creek, in spite of Indian warnings of floods. The most damaging flood was in 1913, and led to America's first comprehensive flood control project, the Miami Conservancy District, financed without state or federal funds. The area is home to John H. Patterson, who bought the rights to a cash register patent and created National Cash Register Company. Charles Kettering developed engineering laboratories, and later the Kettering Foundation was named for him. Montgomery County is the home of the Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur. Paul Laurence Dunbar, famous Afro-American poet, is from this area. Tourist attractions include the Dayton Art Institute, Air Force Museum, Kettering-Moraine Museum, and the annual Dayton Air Fair.

NAMED FOR:	JEREMIAH MORROW, OHIO GOVERNOR, 1822-1826
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1848
SIZE:	406 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	MT. GILEAD

Morrow County is northeast of Columbus and was the site of the first saw and grist mills, built on Whetstone Creek. During the Civil War this county was divided over the slavery issue. The Quakers assisted fugitive slaves on their way to Canada, even in the face of opposition from their neighbors. The first president of Ohio Central College, Rev. George Gordon, was imprisoned for violating the fugitive slave law. Warren G. Harding was a graduate of this college, which in 1887 became the Working Home for the Blind. Mt. Gilead State Park is the main tourist attraction.

NAMED FOR:	DELAWARE INDIAN WORD "MOOSKIN-GUNG" MEANING ELK EYE RIVER
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1804
SIZE:	654 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	ZANESVILLE

Muskingum County is located east of Columbus and once was the scene of many battles between Indians and settlers and inter-tribal battles as well. The area was opened in 1796 by Ebenezer Zane who was authorized by Congress to open a road from West Virginia to Kentucky and the route was called Zane's Trace. Along this trail the settlement of Westbourne was developed which later became Zanesville, home of Zane Grey, great-grandson of Ebenezer Zane and writer of many popular western stories. New Concord is the home of Colonel John H. Glenn, Jr., astronaut and U.S. Senator. NAMED FOR:	JAMES NOBLE, EARLY SETTLER
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1851
SIZE:	399 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	CALDWELL

Noble County, about 80 miles east of Columbus, is one of the best apple growing districts in the state. This county was the last to be organized in the state. The area is rich in limestone and coal deposits, and for a time was the site of active oil wells but after the Civil War the territory became mostly agricultural. Tourist attractions include Seneca Lake Park and the Shenandoah Monument for the Dirigible Shenandoah which crashed outside the village of Ava during a storm in 1925.

ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1820
SIZE:	419 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	PAULDING

Paulding County is in the Black Swamp District and borders Indiana southwest of Toledo. This is the most level county in the state, and because of its marshland it was not settled until quite late in the 19th century, even though drainage began earlier. A tile industry developed in Paulding to help satisfy the drainage needs of the area. Tourist attractions include the Otto E. Ehrhart Museum and the Black Swamp Historical Museum.

ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1818
SIZE:	412 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	NEW LEXINGTON

Perry County is located east of Columbus and was first settled by Pennsylvania Germans in the 1800s. General Philip Sheridan of the Civil War lived in Somerset as a youth and worked in several stores there. St. Joseph's Catholic Church and Priory, the first Catholic Church in the state, was built in Somerset in 1808 by Rev. Edward Fenwick who later became Ohio's first Roman Catholic Bishop. Perry County once was one of the largest coal producing counties in Ohio. Attractions include the New Lexington Civil War Monument, Sheridan's Home and St. Joseph's Priory in Somerset, the July Pottery Festival in Crooksville-Roseville, and a May Moonshine Festival in New Straitsville.

NAMED FOR:	FROM THE INDIAN WORD, PIQUA, MEANING "MAN RISEN FROM THE ASHES"
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 1, 1810
SIZE:	503 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	CIRCLEVILLE

Pickaway County is located south of Columbus and is the home of Circleville, a city which contains the stump of the most famous tree in Ohio. It is named Logan's Elm, in honor of the Mingo chief who, allegedly, sat on the stump and delivered a speech refusing Lord Dunmore's proposed peace treaty. Militiamen wrote down Logan's words which were later printed by Thomas Jefferson. Circleville was established on a circular Mound Builders earthwork. Attractions include Logan Elm State Park and the annual October Pumpkin Show in Circleville.

NAMED FOR:	JAMES ROSS, FRIEND OF GENERAL ARTHUR ST. CLAIR
ESTABLISHED:	PROCLAMATION - AUG. 20, 1796
SIZE:	692 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	CHILLICOTHE

Ross County is south of Columbus and was the sixth county in the Northwest Territory. Evidences of Hopewell and Adena Civilizations have been found in the county and it also was Shawnee Indian territory. Chillicothe, which means "town" in Shawnee dialect, was founded in 1796 and in 1800 became the capital of the Northwest Territory. In 1803 Ohio became the first state created from the Northwest Territory with Chillicothe as the capital and the site of the framing of the state's first constitution. Chillicothe remained the state capital, except for a brief interval in 1810-12, when Zanesville was capital, until the seat of government was moved to Columbus in 1816. Attractions include the annual outdoor summer presentation of "Tecumseh" at Sugarloaf Mountain Amphitheater, the State Memorial Museum of Printing, and Mound State Memorial.

NAMED FOR: INDIAN WORD FOR "DEER"

ESTABLISHED: ACT - MAY 1, 1803

SIZE: 614 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: PORTSMOUTH

Scioto County is south of Columbus, on the Ohio River. Portsmouth was laid out where the Scioto and Ohio Rivers meet, and it became a southern terminus for the Ohio Canal. Later, several railroad lines joined at Portsmouth. Singer and western movie star Roy Rogers spent his childhood in Portsmouth. Ohio's largest state forest, Shawnee Forest, is in Scioto County, which also is the site of prehistoric earthworks. Attractions include Shawnee State Forest, Temper Mound, and the September River Days Festival.

NAMED FOR:	SENECA INDIANS WHO HAD A RESERVATION HERE
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1820
SIZE:	553 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	TIFFIN

Seneca County is located southeast of Toledo. Many early settlers here suffered fever as a result of the Black Swamp conditions. The most popular product of the first store in Fostoria was quinine. Tiffin, named for Ohio's first governor, was founded in 1821 and it was the site of the first brick-making machine. The industrial growth of Tiffin was greatly increased after natural gas was located in the area in 1888. Attractions include Jones Collection of Minerals, Indian Maiden Monument, and Seneca Caverns.

COUNTY PROFILE: SHELBY COUNTY

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL ISAAC SHELBY, REVOLUTIONARY WAR AND KENTUCKY GOVERNOR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1819
SIZE:	409 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	SIDNEY

Shelby County is north of Dayton and originally was established as a trading post near the source of Loramie Creek. Sidney was identified very early as a place which could be utilized for water power and eventually many industrial operations were located there. The Miami and Erie Canal crossed the western part of the county and a feeder canal also served Sidney as a shipping point. Sidney is the site of many unusual buildings, some of which were built to honor Civil War heros. Attractions include the Court House, the Monumental Building, and Lake Loramie State Park.

NAMED FOR: GENERAL JOHN STARK, REVOLUTIONARY WAR

ESTABLISHED: ACT - FEBRUARY 13, 1808

SIZE: 574 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: CANTON

Stark County is southeast of Cleveland and is a county rich in mineral resources, including coal, limestone and marl. The territory originally was occupied by the Delaware Indians. President William McKinley established his law practice in Canton in 1867, and is buried there. Massillon quickly developed as a wheat port and iron producing city, and Alliance, a city of Quaker origin, once was called Crossing because it grew from the junction of two lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the consolidation of three small villages. Alliance also was known as the "Carnation City" because Dr. Levi Lamborn, a candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives, gave his opponent, William McKinley, a carnation for luck, and in 1904 the Ohio General Assembly officially made the carnation the state flower. Attractions include Massillon Springhill Farm, Canton Art Institute, National Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, McKinley Memorial, and the Stark County Historical Center.

NAMED FOR:	TUSCARAWAS RIVER, INDIAN WORD FOR "OPEN MOUTH"
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 15, 1808
SIZE:	569 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	NEW PHILADELPHIA

Tuscarawas County, south of Cleveland, was established by the German-speaking Moravian missionaries who came to work with the Indians. In 1771 David Zeusberger developed an Indian village called Schoenbrunn, the first Christian settlement in the Ohio territory. During the Revolutionary War the Moravian villages tried to be neutral, but were harassed by more warlike tribes. In 1777 Schoenbrunn had to be abandoned. Another, later experiment in creating a communistic settlement called Zoar prospered for about 50 years but failed when discontent among the young people brought it to an end. Attractions include Ohio's first outdoor historical drama, "Trumpet In the Land" about the early struggles of the Moravian missions, restored Schoenbrunn Village, Gnadenhutten Massacre Monument and Museum, and Number One House Museum in Zoar.

NAMED FOR:	ITS FORMATION FROM PARTS OF SURROUNDING COUNTIES
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - APRIL 1, 1820
SIZE:	437 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	MARYSVILLE

Union County is northwest of Columbus. It was settled in part by Amish people. In the 1880s and '90s, when water cures were popular, Magnetic Springs was a center of tourism. It was believed that mineral waters here had a magnetic quality which could charge a knife blade with enough power to pick up a pound of nails. Attractions include Richwood Lake, and an annual county fair.

NAMED FOR:	SAMUEL F. VINTON, UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MARCH 23, 1850
SIZE:	414 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	McARTHUR

Vinton County is in the southeastern part of the state. The village of McArthur was named for Ohio Governor Duncan McArthur. Of historical importance is the Hope Furnace for smelting iron, established by Peter Zaleski, a wealthy Pole who organized a mining company which purchased and developed U.S. land. Before Zaleski could immigrate to this country, the venture failed and the town of Zaleski decreased in size. Zaleski State Forest and Lake Hope State Park, with Ohio's only lake with blue water, are in Vinton County.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL JOSEPH WARREN, REVOLUTIONARY WAR
ESTABLISHED:	ACT - MAY 1, 1803
SIZE:	403 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	LEBANON

Warren County, just north of Cincinnati is the site of Ohio's oldest hotel, the Golden Lamb in Lebanon. It has been in operation since 1803 and was once visited by Charles Dickens. Union Village, outside of Lebanon, was settled by members of the United Society of Believers in Christ's Second Appearing, or Shakers, under a communal philosophy. The settlement eventually failed. Tourist attractions include King's Island Amusement Park, Fort Ancient Museum, a prehistoric series of forts and village sites, and the annual Morgan Gold Cup Horse Show.

NAMED FOR:	GEORGE WASHINGTON
ESTABLISHED:	PROCLAMATION - JULY 27, 1788
SIZE:	640 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	MARIETTA

Washington County, on the Ohio River about 80 miles southeast of Columbus, was the first county created in the Old Northwest Territory. Marietta is home to Marietta College. The county was settled by the New England Ohio Company which erected a stockade, Campus Martius, to protect the first settlers. The Ohio Company Land Office, the oldest existing building in the Northwest Territory is in Marietta. Aaron Burr arrived in the area in 1805 and persuaded resident Harman Blennerhassett to join him in a plot to seize Mexico and influence western states to secede. The plan was discovered and Burr and his partner were tried for treason, but acquitted. Tourist attractions include the annual August Steamboat Festival and Indian Arts and Crafts Show, W.P. Snyder Riverboat Museum, Valley Gem River cruise boat, and the Becky Thatcher boat and dinner show.

NAMED FOR:	GENERAL ANTHONY WAYNE
ESTABLISHED:	PROCLAMATION - AUGUST 15, 1776
SIZE:	557 Square Miles
COUNTY SEAT:	WOOSTER

Wayne County, south of Cleveland, was the third county of the Northwest Territory. Wooster, named for Revolutionary War General David Wooster, was built by Germans who came to live in the region and in 1870, under the direction of a Presbyterian Minister, they established the College of Wooster, still in the community. Just outside Wooster is the Ohio Research and Development Center for Agriculture, started in 1882 on the main campus of The Ohio State University, but moved because of the need for expansion land. These educational institutions provide information to improve the profits of Ohio farmers and the quality and quantity of food products. Tourist attractions include the Wishart Museum of Art and Kister's Grist Mills.

COUNTY PROFILE: WILLIAMS COUNTY

NAMED FOR: DAVID WILLIAMS, REVOLUTIONARY WAR

ESTABLISHED: ACT - APRIL 1, 1820

SIZE: 422 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: BRYAN

Williams County borders Indiana and Michigan in the western part of the state. Heavily timbered and difficult to access in the early years, the county was part of a boundary dispute, the so-called Ohio-Michigan War, which was settled by an Act of Congress. Tourist attractions include the Octagon Barn in Bryan, Michindhio Indian Museum, and the Log Cabin Fairgrounds.

NAMED FOR: COLONEL WOOD, WAR OF 1812

ESTABLISHED: ACT - APRIL 1, 1820

SIZE: 619 Square Miles

COUNTY SEAT: BOWLING GREEN

Wood County, home of Bowling Green State University, is about 20-miles south of Toledo. During the War of 1812 General William Henry Harrison built the outpost of Fort Meigs, named for Jonathan Meigs, governor of Ohio. The fort was the site of fierce fighting between the British and the Indians, led by Tecumseh. General George A. Custer's family spent the Civil War years in Wood County on a farm near Tontogany, a village named for an Indian chief. Tourist attractions include Wood County Historical Society's Museum, Fort Monument and War of 1812 Restoration and Perry's Monument, Perrysburg.
